Fifth Tobacco Fair!

UNBOUNDED SUCCESS!

More Samples and More Visitors Than On Any Previous Occasion

Who Won the Premiums and Who Bought the Prize-Winning Weed, and the Prices Paid

HE DID IT.

The Fifth Annual Tobacco Fair Saturday was another feather in the cap of the Maysville Board of Trade, its energetic President, and the merchants and business men of Maysville generally.

Overhead, the weather was all that could be asked; underfoot, it could scarcely have been worse, and the fellow that wasn't either rough-shod or on runners, was likely at any moment to sit down suddenly and see more stars than he could count.

The crowds began coming early in all sorts of conveyances, and big delegations arrived over the L. and N. and morning C. and O. trains.

The Courthouse was the storm center of the forenoon, for here, under the able direction of Colonel Joseph F. Walton and his assistants, the various exhibits were classified and judged.

During the furtiveness of this work the Augusta Band gave a free concert at the Opera-house for the benefit of the ladies, who honored the occasion in large numbers.

AFTERNOON PROGRAM.

The 1:30 C. and O. Flyer brought the Business Men's Club and its splendid Band from Cincinnati, and when those reached the Opera-house the "real thing" came off.

After an invocation by the Rev. T. S. Buckingham of the Christian Church, the Hon. Clarence L. Sallee, President of the Board of Education, delivered the Address of Welcome, a finished, scholarly and most appropriate effort, stamping Mr. Sallee as the "right man in the right place."

Following this, and led by its Band, the Business Men's Club sprang this surprise-song on the innocent and unoffending audience—

IT'S CINCINNATI, DEAR CINCINNATI.
There is a town that's known to all, a town of great renown;
The name of it is always heard, a name that will not die;
You read about it every day, you've heard its name,
It's noted all around the world, they all have found it out.

Chorus:
It's Cincinnati, dear Cincinnati,
The greatest town there is on earth today.
We sing its glory, in song and story,
For its the best there is in every way.

There is a man that's known to all, a man of great renown;
A man whose name is on the lips of every one in town.
You read about him every day, you've heard his name,
No doubt, no doubt,
They noted all around the world, they all have found him out.

Chorus:
It's Mr. Duley, it's Mr. Duley,
The greatest man that Maysville ever knew,
Quite diplomatic, and democratic,
Is Mr. Duley, they all say.

Hon. Brent Arnold represented the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce in an able address, followed by Hon. Harry T. Atkins, President Ohio State Board of Commerce, Hon. James C. Hohart of the Business Men's Club and Mr. L. D. Weller of The Commercial Tribune.

Louisville's end of the oratorical string was held up by Messrs. C. D. Campbell, D. C. Bettison and Jordan Owens.

The premium samples, as well as the corn, wheat and potatoes, were presented to the Kentucky Commissioners for exhibit at the World's Fair.

A happy finale to the program was the presentation by Secretary Curran, in behalf of the Board of Trade, of a handsome bouquet to Colonel John L. Shuff, in recognition of his zeal in interesting his Cincinnati colleagues in the Tobacco Fairs of this city.

Thus ended the Fifth event; and President Duley announced a Sixth, the details and date to be fixed later on.

A petition for rehearing the suit of Gardner vs. Winter & Co., taken up from this county, has been filed in the Court of Appeals.

Dr. Edwin Matthews was appointed Kentucky's representative on the Press Committee at the meeting of the Independent Telephone Associations at Cincinnati last week.

Colonel C. C. Degman of Springdale ventured down to the Tobacco Fair Saturday, and despite the snow and sleet he didn't forget The Ledger Man, bringing a basket of eggs and other goodies indigenous to Maplewood Farm. Eggs! Just think of a newspaperman reveling in eggs when they are at a premium in gold dollars! Expect however that Mrs. Degman had a big share in this acceptable remembrance, for which many thanks are due.

"It is the law of American politics that no man can make himself a candidate for President, and no man can prevent himself from being a candidate for President."—From a statement made by the late James G. Blaine.

LOUISVILLE complains because of drinking diluted Ohio river mud. Why doesn't she drop a few pounds of radium in the slot?

ONE of THE LEDGER's valued Russian exchanges contains this suggestive remark—

"One war, unfortunately, will not settle the matter, as gland, and the United States are behind Japan."

"Unfortunately" is good; but come along with your shootin' irons, old man, and Uncle Sam will knock your socks offsky.

TRAGEDY RAMPANT!

Five Murders Committed Saturday Night

MURDER--ARSON--SUICIDE ANOTHER DOUBLE KILLING

Triple Crimes Committed By G. W. Bramel Near Mt. Gilead

Brutally Kills His Wife, Burns His House, and Cremates Himself

Garrett Breckinridge, Colored, Shoots His Wife and Himself

He Had Previously Killed Two Men On Account of Jealousy

This community was stirred yesterday morning as it has never before been moved when news of the atrocious murder of Mrs. Sallie Bramel fell upon it like a clap of thunder from a clear sky. Sallie Hunt is remembered as a sweet, cultured, high-bred girl, who some fifteen years was led to the altar—against the earnest protests of her parents and intimate friends—V. Bramel, who promised to love, cherish and protect her. How sad, and in such a cruel manner, has her young life been cut short by a man on that wedding morn promised to be her solace and joy!

Since that unfortunate day her life has been a very unhappy and dreary one, made so by a husband who was a fiend in human form. Some years ago on account of mistreatment she left her husband and again took up her residence here among her relatives and friends. If she had only hearkened to their earnest pleadings not to return to him after he had so badly treated her she would be living today and happy in the rearing of her now more than orphaned children.

The murder and suicide occurred yesterday morning between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock at their farm residence near Mt. Gilead. It seems the husband had been to the nearby town where he became intoxicated, which was his failing whenever he visited the burg. When in his cups he was brutal, vicious and treacherous, and was of that class of men who it is well to keep an eye on when in such a condition.

On his home coming he quarreled with a brother who was sleeping in the house at the time, and drove him from the home. After the brother was gone the defenseless and weak wife became the object of his murderous wrath.

As to what took place in the short time following is largely that of supposition. The two sons, one aged 6 and the other about 12, are not clear as to the occurrence. The oldest said his father shot his mother inside the house. The children became frightened and ran to the home of Mr. Applegate and gave the alarm, and by the time the neighbors arrived the house was burned, together with the contents and the body of Bramel.

Mrs. Bramel was found on the outside of the building. The top of her head had been blown off, evidently with a shotgun, her clothing consumed by fire and the body burned to a crisp from the heat of the burning building. He had evidently dragged her to where she was found.

After a search among the debris what remained of the murderer was gathered up and put in a box. After committing his awful deed he evidently set fire to the house and then shot himself and was incinerated in the flames.

The body of Mrs. Sallie Bramel was brought to the home of her brother, Mr. John M. Hunt of East Fourth street. The funeral took place this morning at 9 o'clock from St. Patrick's Church, Rev. Father P. M. Jones officiating. Interment in the family lot at Washington.

Yesterday morning at 12:40 o'clock the residents of East Fourth street were awakened from their sleep by the rapid discharge of revolver shots.

Policemen Ryan and Rosser, being in the vicinity and hearing the shots, immediately set about an investigation. Proceeding up Fourth, and just West of the steps leading up to the Fourth Ward Schoolhouse, and in the glare of an electric light, they discovered the bodies of two colored people stilled in death, which proved to be Garrett Breckinridge and his wife Lucy, generally known as Lucy Haley.

The woman was shot five times, once near the center of the head just behind the ear and four times in the body; the man was shot in the head about the same place he had shot his wife. The ball did not pass entirely through, being cut out by the doctor.

When found he still retained the pistol in his hand, and from the position of the bodies—side by side—it had the appearance that he had lain down by her side before sending the messenger on its mission of death through his own head.

The cause of the murder was jealousy. About ten years ago he killed Charley Yates, colored, of whom he was intensely jealous, shooting him with a shotgun and then breaking the gun over the dead man's head. Some time after he killed a man at the Germantown Fair, and being tried was acquitted in both cases. It is said he was laying for a colored man named Henry Jackson Saturday night, whom he intended to kill, but the former was warned in time to escape.

The P. O. S. of A. will join Joe Heiser Post in the celebration of Washington's Birthday at the G. A. R. Hall this evening. Every one is invited.

The remains of G. W. Bramel, the wife murderer and suicide, which consisted of ashes and a few bones, were interred in the family lot in the Maysville Cemetery this morning.

Charley Jones and Lonnie Sutton of Aberdeen were on this side of the river Saturday and were engaged in a brawl in Market street. After crossing the river they renewed the quarrel and Jones shot at Sutton. He missed his mark, however, and before he could fire again he was disarmed.

Saturday evening a barouche containing Misses Annie, Lottie, Llewellyn and Robert Brod, was returning from this city to their home in the county, and when near their grandfather's place, the jingling bells of a passing sleigh frightened the horses, causing them to run off and upsetting the barouche. The party inside were more or less injured, but none seriously. It was a miraculous escape. The barouche was wrecked.

Our friends the Russians are now up to their "eyes" in the scrimmage with Japan. The latest list of the Czar's defenders contains the names of Commanders TAKENOUCHI, NAGAI and ISHIKAWI, together with the torpedo destroyer Asargiri. Evidently, it was the Czar's day "off."

In making announcement of his candidacy for the Court of Appeals, Judge CANTRELL consumes two stickfuls of space to tell what he has done for Kentucky Democrats by his decisions from the Bench. Two of his Democratic opponents, Judges CARROLL and SAUFLEY, require only five lines apiece.

CINCINNATI liverymen squarely declare they are not going to tolerate the Union Walking Delegates. The Manager of one firm which employs twenty drivers told the men that he wanted to do all that was fair by them, but that he could not and would not consent to the Union or its Walking Delegate taking control of those who worked for the firm, nor would he have his drivers subject to the orders of outsiders.

KILLING IN FLEMING

The Festive Crap Game Has Another Murder to Its Credit

Sunday morning at 2 o'clock Jerry Hunt shot and instantly killed Ben Davis over a crap game at Charles See's house in Bucktown, a Negro suburb of Flemingsburg. Hunt escaped, and the Chief of Police of this city was notified to be on the look out for him.

HARD TO EXPLAIN

If This Had Occurred Anywhere Else Than Maysville Our Readers Might Doubt It.

It's hard to explain how the public can continue to doubt in the face of such evidence. If this were published anywhere else than in Maysville, if the statement given below went the rounds of the press, readers in Boston or New Orleans might doubt it. But it's very different when the testimony given comes from a friend, perhaps a neighbor. It is public expression of a local citizen, and can be easily investigated.

Mr. Larmon Dawson, residing at 934 East Second street, says:

"The quick relief from pain in my back, which followed the use of Doan's Kidney Pills, proved them to possess remarkable powers. I procured them at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets. From the satisfactory results obtained, I can advise all in need of a kidney medicine to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial."

Stop . . . Coughing!

...This is not a command—only a suggestion. We suggest that you stop that slight cough before it becomes too late. Oftentimes people say "Oh, it is only a slight cough; it will soon wear off." The cough grows worse, and they have to resort to strong medicine and perhaps have a long sickness. If in the beginning they had used a mild remedy they would have saved themselves and others a great deal of trouble and worry. There is nothing so annoying as a hacking cough; it not only disturbs the one who is coughing, but it disturbs and annoys every one who is in hearing. To those who are troubled with a cough we suggest a bottle of...

Death of Many Sudden Deaths.

A disease prevailing in this most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisonous blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

PLEASANT EVENT

H. E. Pogue Distillery Company Compliments Cincinnati Visitors.

With their usual enterprise, the H. E. Pogue Distillery Company, after the close of the Tobacco Fair on Saturday, arranged an entertainment for Maysville's Cincinnati and Louisville visitors.

Their special car was switched at the big plant in the West End—to await the passing of the 4:30 Westbound train,—where the first sight that met the visitors eyes was the supplication—

Grace to all seventy-five men full of force in fifteen minutes. O Lord help us.

The appeal was not in vain; for as "the Lord helps those who help themselves," there never was on a similar occasion a more willing set of helpers; and although there was not time sufficient for the visitors to inspect the immense plant, the Messrs. Pogue saw to it that their guests were not sent empty away.

The feature of the occasion was a most substantial luncheon, which was seasoned with genuine greetings from President John F. Pogue, Vice-President William L. Pogue and General Manager Henry E. Pogue, composing the Distillery Company.

It is almost unnecessary to add that each guest carried away a good taste as a souvenir of the pleasant event.

Mr. V. Worthington has moved from this county to Paris and is now a member of the Templin Lumber Company, in which firm he recently purchased a half interest.
